

Opening Ceremony for Chiba University Bangkok Center at Mahidol University

Chiba University inaugurated the Bangkok Center located at Mahidol University International College (MUIC) Aditayathorn Building on September 19, 2017. President of Chiba University, Takeshi Tokuhisa and Acting President of Mahidol University, Banchong Mahaisavariya attended the event along with 100 people from Japanese organizations in Thailand, executives and staff from Mahidol University and MUIC, the partners of sister universities in Thailand, and students from Chiba University.

Takeshi Tokuhisa, President of CU

Mr. Shigeki Kobayashi, Councilor, Director of Japan Information Service, Embassy of Japan in Thailand

Banchong Mahaisavariya, Acting President of MU

Phitaya Charupoonphol, Dean of MUIC

Prof. Yuichi Oda, Organization for Higher Education Planning of CU

Group Photo (Guests, MU, MUIC, CU)

Ms. Noriko Tsuboi, KOTO Performer

Prof. Hiroaki Ozawa, Vice-President of CU

Chiba University utilize the Bangkok Center as an overseas center of the development for global human resources through various joint programs with Mahidol University, while promoting international joint research in wide variety of areas including environment, health and food with research institutions in ASEAN countries. It also supports overseas alumni activities in the ASEAN region.

Chiba University Bangkok Center