Hiroshima and Nagasaki: From Truman to Obama

Presenter:

Dr. Richard Rupp

Associate Professor of Political Science
Director of the Center for Global Studies
Purdue University Northwest

For most Americans, the dropping of the atomic bombs remains a simple story: The bombs were dropped and Japan surrendered.

The full story is far more complex and reveals that it was not necessary to drop the bombs to bring about an end to the War.

Please join Professor Richard Rupp for a lecture and discussion on June 15.

Richard Rupp is Associate Professor of Political Science and Director of the Center for Global Studies at Purdue University Northwest.
